

Travel the world in 20 minutes with...

Global Road Warrior

The Global Road Warrior database is produced by World Trade Press and brought to you by the Hammond Public Library.

- Do you want to compare the street and organized crime in the United States with the countries in South America?
- Are you studying the status of women around the world?
- Perhaps you're working on a presentation about France, and you need to find its visual points of interest.

Wherever your inquiry project takes you, be sure to visit the Global Road Warrior database, accessible with your library card either at a library location or from your very own home computer.

Global Road Warrior provides information on 175 countries around the world in 21 different categories:

Accessing Global Road Warrior is easy:
