

Our Community: Then & Now

Issue: Fall 2005

Our School Name

Teacher: Dr. Lamb

In This Issue

You'll find lots of interesting articles about how life has changed from the 1920-50s and Now

Outhouse or Bathroom?

Stove or Microwave?

Radio or Television?

Crank Phone or Cell Phone?

Model T or SUV?

Outhouse or Bathroom?

Then - We didn't have an indoor toilet. We had to go to a small shack in the back yard called an outhouse.

Now - We have lots of bathrooms in our house.

The photo from the Library of Congress was taken in 1949.

This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go.

information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go.

Stove or Microwave?

Then - We used a gas stove. We had to use a match to light the stove.

Now - We heat things in a microwave.

The photo from the Library of Congress was taken in 1910.

This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go.

Radio or Television

Then - We listened to radio programs in the evening. We had one radio in the living room and no televisions.

Now - We have a television in almost every room in our house. We have cable television and zillions of channels.

The photo from the Library of Congress was taken in 1943.

This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go. This is where more information will go.

