The Book Thief
By Markus Zusak

While examining family mementos, a young woman makes sense of her grandmother's version of the Sleeping Beauty fairy tale with BRIAR ROSE.

BETWEEN SHADES OF GRAY is intricately-plotted historical fiction set in Soviet-era Siberia and based on the author's family.

Set during World War I, STAY WHERE YOU ARE & THEN LEAVE is the story of a young boy trying to make sense of war and his father.

With EVERYTHING IS ILLUMINATED, readers follow a witty modern-day writer on his search for the Ukrainian woman who saved his grandfather from the Nazis.

CODE NAME VERITY and ROSE UNDER FIRE are companion books that both tell moving stories about women in World War II.
